For many years the Southern Right whale has traveled to Hermanus, which, is the worlds best land, based whale watching spot. Hermanus is home to the worlds only whale crier who blows his kelp horn when whales are spotted in the bay.

Highlights included: A scenic coastal Clarens Drive with spectacular views of False Bay, Harold Porter National Botanical Garden with its bird and plant life, whale watching from Hermanus and its surrounds, a farm stall where you can stop for natural preserves, jams with a difference and delightful pastries, ending with a cup of tea (for your own account), the Sir Lowry's Mountain Pass with its spectacular views of False Bay
